Al Hamra Marina & Yacht
Club Manager

Al Hamra Marina was built about 10 years ago, It's always been a popular destination for boat owners in the UAE and even further afield, however the marina has evolved rapidly in recent years with many new developments taking place, resulting in the great facility we can all enjoy today. As a keen boater myself I understand the importance of quality of workmanship, using quality products and offering quality facilities. I feel deep satisfaction derived from the fact, that the new facilities are of utmost quality and are available to our customers who have contributed to our professional reputation.
